Adenomata of the ovary, A case of proliferating cyst, tr., 124
Adhesions, The prevention and treatment of, 53
Age, Causal factors in the disposition to cancer in old, 650
Air inflation of the bladder, The röntgenographic diagnosis of prostatic enlargement by means of, 407
American College of Surgeons, 257
Anæmia, Splenectomy for primary pernicious, 675
Anæsthesia, Intravenous ether, 334; Spinal, in gynecology, 492; Recent experiments defining the dangers of, 386
Aneurism of the deep epigastric artery and vein, Arteriovenous (varicose). Report of a unique case with a review of the literature, 59; of the aorta, Operative treatment of, 163; needle, A two-eyed, 418
Ankle, Lavandera's, 691
Ankylosis: An experimental study, 568; of the mandible, Operative treatment of. With a history of the operation and an analysis of two hundred and twelve cases, 436
Antiseptic solutions, A study of the efficiency of the Seelig-Gould method of testing, 772
Aorta, Operative treatment of aneurism of the, 163
Aphasia, Traumatic, 669
Appendectomy, Traumatic diverticulum of cæcum following, 791
Appendicitis, A method of drainage in suppurative, 794; A modification of the technique in the operation for suppurative, based on post-operative hæmorrhage, 679
Appendix, Presentation of specimens of retention cyst of the, tr., 121
Arm-board in surgery, The uses of an, 545
Arteriovenous (varicose) aneurism of the deep epigastric artery and vein. Report of a unique case with a review of the literature, 59
Autoplastic bone grafting. With exhibition of lantern slides, 531
Avulsion of the scalp, 229
Axillary sup, The, 248

BLADDER, The röntgenographic diagnosis of prostatic enlargement by means of air inflation of the, 307
Blood, The further development of an apparatus for the transfusion of, 235
Bone, The fate of the transplanted, and regenerative power of its various constituents, 303; transplantation, Immediate, in compound comminuted fracture of the tibia and fibula, one of the fragments used for a transplant, 541; Infraction of the second metatarsal, a typical injury, 191; Regeneration of cartilage and, with a special study of these processes as they occur at the chondrocostal junction, 604; transplantation as a treatment of fracture and fracture-dislocation of the spine, 664
Bone-grafts, The treatment of cranial defects by, 546; grafting, autoplastic; with exhibition of lantern slides, 531
Brain, Hæmostasis, with special reference to its employment in surgery of the, 415

CÆCUM, Traumatic diverticulum of, following appendectomy, 791
Cæsarean section, Three cases of, tr., 253
Callus formation, Traumatic parosteal bone and, 174
Cancer of the larynx, The results of operation (laryngofissure) for intrinsic, 339 and 679; of the uterus, The results of radical operative treatment, 456; of the colon, Intestinal obstruction due to, with a note on the operative treatment of this condition, 475; in old age, Causal factors in the disposition to, 650; of the pyloric end of the stomach, The radical operation for, 683; Ferment diagnosis (Abderhalden) for, 797
Carcinoma of the uterus, The treatment of inoperable, by application of heat, 452; of the penis, The operative treatment of, 693
Cartilage, Regeneration of, and bone with a special study of these processes as they occur at the chondrocostal junction, 604
Catgut, Woven splints for the open treatment of fractures, a preliminary report, 410
Cautery, Treatment by, of gastric ulcer, 528
Cervix, Forward fixation of, as a predisposing cause of some retrodeviations of the uterus, and an operation for its release, 588
Chicago Gynecological Society, tr., 123, 253, 422
Chicago Surgical Society, tr., 120
Children, Ulcer of the stomach in, before puberty, 462
Choledojejunostomy, Anterior, with report of a case, 232
Circumcision, A new method of, 234
Coagulation, Electrothermic, and röntgen therapy in the treatment of malignant disease, 783
(Colica mucosa, membranous enteritis and). Surgical myxorrhœa coli, myxorrhœa membranacea and myxorrhœa colica, 704
Collargol injections, tr., 125
Colon, Calcified fibroma uteri compressing the sigmoid, 169; Calcified uterine fibroid compressing the sigmoid, tr., 254; Intestinal obstruction due to cancer of the, 475
Complement-fixation test, Observations on the gonococcus employing specific and non-specific antigens, 390.
Congenital contractures of the fingers, with the report of a case of the familial type, 193; vaginal malformations, Concerning the formation of a new vagina in the case of, 376
Contractured psoas parvus tendons, their significance and clinical relationship to lesions of the right iliac region, 215
